

Class: Standard Two

Curriculum Topic: Comprehension- Text Features-Graphs

Teaching Point/s: Bar graphs show the relationships between numbers using bars of different lengths. Bars are used to compare amounts.

Bar graphs show the relationships between numbers using bars of different lengths.

Bars are also used to compare amounts.

Activity 1

Look carefully at the bar graph below. Use the information seen to correctly answer the questions that follow.

Look carefully at the bar graph above. Use the information seen to answer the following questions correctly.

1. How many visitors visited the fishpond?

_____.

2. Which activity did most visitors participate in?

_____.

3. Which activity attracted fifteen visitors?

_____.

4. Which activity did forty visitors participate in?

_____.

5. Which activity had least visitor participation?

_____.

6. What was the total number of visitors who participated in activities on San Fernando Hill?

_____.

Answer Key

Activity 1

1. How many visitors visited the fishpond?
   Twenty-five visitors visited the fishpond.

2. Which activity did most visitors participate in?
   Most visitors participated in the scenic view activity.

3. Which activity attracted fifteen visitors?
   The picnic activity attracted fifteen visitors.

4. Which activity did forty visitors participate in?
   Forty visitors participated in the playpark activity

5. Which activity had least visitor participation?
   The picnic activity had the least visitor participation.

6. What was the total number of visitors who participated in activities on San Fernando Hill?
   The total number of visitors who participated in activities on San Fernando Hill was one hundred and thirty.